Dear Ms. Sims:

We request a refund in the amount of $86.00 to be applied to our deposit account in connection with the above-identified application (Serial No. 09/641,802) for the following reason.

On May 17, 2004, an Amendment and Response was filed with the Patent Office for this application, which DID NOT contain additional claims. However, $86.00 was charged to our deposit account under code #2201. We believe this charge is invalid, and the request for refund in the amount of $86.00 is appropriate.

A copy of page 2 of the deposit account statement reflecting this charge is attached for reference.

Thank you very much for your assistance with this matter. Please contact me with any questions you may have.
